Landscapers INC strives to be recognized as an equal opportunity employer, for this reason the following assessment criteria are used:

- Assessment of learning Potential
- Assessment of Management Potential
- Career Development Assessment
- Assessment of suitability of students for various courses of study

These training and development programs will enable this organization to Co-ordinate individual activities to deliver Customer satisfaction efficiently and effectively. This will also enhance the reflexive competence in demonstrating the ability to reflect on, evaluate, adapt and improve in a variety of contexts.

STRATEGIC OBJECTIVES

Landscapers INC mission is to increase its market share in the Landscaping Sector therefore the strategic objective of Landscapers INC is to develop an integrated Education, Training and Human Resources Development Plan to unlock the full potential of all human resources within Landscapers INC, this will add value to the social and economic sustainability of the organization.

This strategic objective will be achieved through the development of employee's competence levels as well as increased levels of return on costs and investment in education and training. It is encouraged to adopt a culture of life-long learning skills by creating:

- A workplace, which is an active learning environment
- Opportunities to acquire new skills

These learning interventions are to minimize or eliminate costly mistakes, which derive from incompetence and enhance cost efficiency and cost effectiveness.

Together we begin a pilgrimage aimed at ensuring that we really achieve organizational excellence.

It is a fact that without rules our lives would be chaotic. Imagine what driving would be like if there were no rules of the road to guide and assist us.

Similarly, policies and procedures are intended to assist us in the performance of our work. Although all employees are expected to comply with these policies and procedures, they are also expected to interpret them reasonably in order for them to achieve the full effect.

Whilst Management will keep these policies and procedures under constant review, employees who feel they should be amended are requested to present the matter to the relevant manager, who will then make the necessary amendments if so required.
